Re: 2018 CEV Volleyball Golden European League Men - Final Four

Dear Mr President,

Based on the decision of the CEV Board of Administration, we are delighted to confirm that the Czech Volleyball Federation has been appointed as the host of the 2018 CEV Volleyball Golden European League Men.

We were very pleased to receive your application, and following a careful investigation of the various aspects, the organisation of this prestigious event has been awarded to your Federation. With your proven record of accomplishment in top Volleyball events, we are absolutely confident that the 2018 CEV Volleyball Golden European League Final Four will be a truly remarkable event, which will further increase the popularity of Volleyball all across Europe.

The CEV Office will be in close contact with you in planning, preparing and delivering this prestigious event on the highest organisational level, according to the CEV regulatory framework as well as the bidding documents. In order to ensure the quality standards of the CEV events across Europe, we remind you as co-organiser of this event to share any kind of proposal and idea with the CEV for final approval prior you undertake any actions.

The official announcement of the Czech Volleyball Federation as the Organiser of the 2018 CEV Volleyball Golden European League Men Final Four in Karlovy Vary will be prepared and coordinated with the CEV Office in the next days.

We trust that the Czech Volleyball Federation will be a strong partner by our side when it comes to jointly organising the 2018 CEV Volleyball Golden European League Men - Final Four.

We look forward to cooperating with you on this top Volleyball event and would like to once again thank you for your efforts and dedication.

With my best regards,

Aleksandar BORIČIĆ
CEV President
